

vided, however, that the sheriff shall post at least three (3) public notices of any sale in the limits of the Town of Elkton and by mailing a registered letter to the last-known Post Office address of the taxable not less than ten (10) days prior to the sale; and the Sheriff is hereby directed to close his tax account with the treasurer, if possible, on or before the second Tuesday in June, in each year, and the sheriff shall compel, if practicable, the settlement of all tax claims in full on or before said date.

134-C. All moneys belonging to the said corporation, which shall come into the hands of the said treasurer during each week, shall be deposited by him in such depository or depositories to be named by the said president and commissioners, and said deposit or deposits shall be placed to the credit of the said president and commissioners, and the funds thus deposited shall be drawn out only by check, signed by said treasurer and countersigned by the said president; in case of absence or disability, of either, or both, or in case of a vacancy in either or both of said offices or position, then by checks signed and countersigned by such person or persons as said corporation may designate; all documents, books and papers pertaining to the office of treasurer are hereby declared to be the property of said corporation and at all times subject to the examination of the president and commissioners, and together with the funds in the hands of the treasurer belonging to the corporation shall, at the end of his term, or in case of his removal from the said office, be turned over to his successor as soon as he shall have qualified as aforesaid, or to such persons as the president and commissioners may designate.

148. The president and commissioners may, from time to time, under such conditions as they may by their ordinance direct, appoint such officers or select such employees as they may deem necessary to carry into effect their ordinances and the work of the corporation, or may employ such persons as policemen as the exigencies demand without the necessity of passing a special ordinance in respect thereto; and, as soon as practicable after their election and qualification, they shall, annually, appoint a Town Bailiff, who shall continue in office until his successor has been appointed and qualified, but shall be subject to removal by the president and commissioners for neglect of duty, disobedience of its orders, malfeasance in office or inability to discharge the duties of the office of Bailiff, and shall have, within the town of Elkton, all the authority of a
