

made as aforesaid, the provisions of law in reference to bail in case of misdemeanor shall apply; or the said accused in addition to the means hereinbefore prescribed for sufficient bail or collateral may tender as bail his motor vehicle as provided for by Section 206 of Article 56, title "Licenses," subtitle "Motor Vehicles as Bail," and said section in its entirety shall be construed as applicable to the provisions of this Act as though incorporated verbatim herein. Provided, however, that should said accused when brought before said Justice of the peace other than the Police Justice, have preferred against him more than one charge for violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws, the said Justice of the Peace shall exact and only exact of said accused a recognizance or collateral or motor vehicle as bail in a sum not to exceed the maximum fine to be imposed in any one of said charges, it being at his election for which offense the said accused shall give collateral or recognizance or his motor vehicle as bail; and he shall accept the personal recognizance of the accused for all other charges preferred against him for violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws for his appearance before said Police Justice at the time and place fixed by said Justice of the Peace, and as designated in said recognizance. But should said accused fail to appear before said Police Justice at the time fixed for his appearance, the bond or collateral taken or motor vehicle tendered, as the case may be, shall be and become forthwith forfeited absolutely, and if it be a forfeited recognizance, the same procedure shall be followed as in case of a forfeited recognizance in the Circuit Court for Prince George's County; and if a forfeited motor vehicle, the said Police Justice shall forthwith sell said motor vehicle, and within five days thereafter pay over the proceeds thereof to the Commissioners of Motor Vehicles as fines for violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws are now required to be paid; and if forfeited collateral the same shall be paid over to the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles as now required by law, after deducting therefrom in any case of forfeiture any costs now authorized by law. But the failure of said accused to appear for trial as herein provided for before said Police Justice and the forfeitures herein authorized shall not prevent the subsequent arrest, conviction and the imposition of the penalty or penalties authorized by law. Should the accused furnish the bail or collateral in any of the ways prescribed for his appearance before said Police Justice, the said Justice of the Peace taking such recog-
