

nizance or collateral, or motor vehicle as surety, as the case may be, shall forthwith transmit the warrant under which the accused was brought before him, with a list of witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, as well as the recognizance taken, or the collateral, or motor vehicle as surety, whichever it be, together with a copy of his docket entries and all costs incurred by him to the Police Justice, and also if in his judgment necessary, shall take recognizance in such amount or collateral in such amount as he may deem proper to compel the personal appearance of the witnesses for the State on the day fixed for the trial of said accused before said Police Justice. The said Justice of the Peace other than the Police Justice shall receive the sum of one dollar in full for all his charges, and the constable or other officer, if other than a member of the Prince George's County Police, or State Police, shall receive the sum of one dollar in full for all his charges; but should the officer making the arrest be the sheriff of Prince George's County, or any one of his deputies, or any member of the Prince George's County Police, the said Justice of the Peace shall tax as part of the costs for the service of said warrant the sum of one dollar, which shall be turned over to the County Commissioners of Prince George's County. But no constable, sheriff, deputy sheriff, police officer, or other peace officer, shall be entitled to receive any fee for testifying as a witness in any case involving a violation of the Motor Vehicle Laws.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That upon the receipt by the Police Justice of the papers in all cases of violations of any of the provisions of the Motor Vehicle Laws, or any other law, local or general, transmitted to him for trial from any other Justice of the Peace, he shall forthwith docket a case in the name of the State of Maryland against the accused, and issue subpoenas for witnesses, and try and determine said case, if he has jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, within ten days after the receipt of the papers, inclusive of the day on which said papers are received, and shall pronounce judgment and sentence as required by law. Provided, however, that upon good cause shown by either the party accused or the State's Attorney on behalf of the State, the said Police Justice may continue said case for such time, and to be heard at such place as in his judgment may be reasonable and just, provided that should said case be continued at the instance of either party, the said Police Justice shall take the same bail
