

Code of Public General Laws of Maryland; nor to fines, penalties or forfeitures as contained in any ordinance of any incorporated town in Prince George's County, except that one-half of all fines, penalties or forfeitures imposed by virtue of the violation of any town ordinance of any incorporated town of said County, whether imposed by the Police Justice or any other Justice of the Peace, shall be paid over to the County Commissioners for the use of Prince George's County.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That the Police Justice shall prescribe rules and regulations governing the practice and procedure in his said Court, and shall prescribe the form of writs, both civil and criminal, to be used therein. The County Commissioners shall prepare proper return forms for the several Justices of the Peace of said County other than the Police Justice, and to be used by them in all cases originating before them, said forms to be in duplicate, and in all cases where the alleged offense originated before any Justice of the Peace other than the Police Justice, the said Justice of the Peace shall transmit the papers and the recognizance and the collateral as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That it is the intent and purpose of this Act that the Police Justice herein created shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear, try and determine, enter judgment and impose sentence in all cases in which he is given jurisdiction under the provisions of this Act, and to enlarge his civil jurisdiction to two hundred and fifty dollars ($250), and to limit and confine criminal jurisdiction to the Police Justice except as in this Act provided, and that the several Justices of the Peace of Prince George's County other than the Police Justice shall have no criminal jurisdiction except as herein specifically provided for, but the several Justices of the Peace of said County shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine any violation of ordinances in any incorporated town in said County, except as herein provided, as well as to hear, try and determine violations of ordinances of any town that may be incorporated subsequent to the passage of this Act.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That all Acts or parts of Acts of any Public General or Public Local Laws or town ordinances inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, be, and they are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.