

sections to follow immediately after Section 254 and to be designated as Sections 254-A, 254-B, 254-C, 254-D, 254-E and 254-F and to read respectively as follows:

Section 254-A. That there is hereby added to the territory of Pocomoke City all the land lying immediately between the boundaries of the town of Pocomoke City as they existed prior to the passage of this Act, and the boundaries fixed by this Act, as follows: Beginning at a stone bounder where formerly stood a red oak, the said place of beginning being at the end of the third line of the survey of the boundaries of the town of Pocomoke City as they existed prior to the passage of this Act, said beginning point being described in said survey as "an old red oak standing on the Northeast side of a road leading from Dr. Hearn's house to Winter Quarter Landing," thence running (1) North fifty-nine and one-half ($59\frac{1}{2}$) degrees East two hundred eighty-seven (287) feet to a stone bounder in Winter Quarter Woods, thence (2) South nineteen (19) degrees East eight hundred fifteen (815) feet to an iron pin driven in the ground eight (8) feet in an Easterly direction from the East side of a ditch in what is known as the "Peter Tarr Field, thence (3) South nineteen (19) degrees East parallel with said ditch and approximately six (6) feet in an Easterly direction from the East side thereof nineteen hundred forty-seven (1947) feet through the Peter Tarr Field to a stone bounder on the North side of the State Stone Road leading from Pocomoke City to Snow Hill, thence running (4) South twenty-four and one-half ($24\frac{1}{2}$) degrees East across said State Road thirty (30) feet to the East corner of a culvert on the South side thereof, thence (5) South ten (10) degrees East across what is known as the "John Sturgis Land" eighteen hundred fifteen (1815) feet to a stone bounder on the East side of a ditch, thence (6) South twenty-four (24) degrees East by and with the East side of said ditch four hundred fifty-five (455) feet to a stone bounder, thence (7) South forty (40) degrees East six hundred fifty (650) feet to a stone bounder on the North side of a private road leading Northeasterly from the East side of the State Stone Road which leads from Pocomoke City to the Virginia Line, thence (8) South forty-six and one-half ($46\frac{1}{2}$) degrees West by and with the North side of said private road three hundred twenty-seven and one-half ($327\frac{1}{2}$) feet to a stone bounder on the East or Northeast side of the State Stone Road leading from Pocomoke City to the Virginia Line, thence (9) North forty