

the town treasurer of Pocomoke City all moneys collected by him at such time as the law may appoint or the Mayor and Council may direct then and in such case this obligation to be void, but otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law." The said town clerk shall make monthly settlements with the town treasurer for all town taxes, fines and other moneys collected by him during the previous month and such settlement shall be entered in full in the minutes of the Council.

267. The Mayor and Council may, when they deem such officers necessary, appoint one or more night watchmen, and may by ordinance or by unanimous vote of the Council approved by the Mayor and entered in the minute book of said town fix their term of office, their salary and their duties. All night watchmen, when so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of their duties shall take and subscribe before the Mayor the same oath herein required to be taken and subscribed by policemen. And all night watchmen shall have all the police powers of constables, and any person resisting them, or any of them, in the discharge of their duties shall be liable, upon conviction, to the same penalties as are imposed for resisting a constable. And they shall have power to serve, deliver or post all orders or notices which under any law or ordinance are required to be served, delivered or posted and to make returns thereon to the Mayor, the Council or the Mayor and Council, and the return of any night watchman thereto shall have the same force and effect as is hereinbefore given to the return of the policemen to any such notice. They shall have the same power for making arrests and for serving the warrants or writs for criminal offenses, issued by any Justice of the Peace, for any offense against the ordinances of the town or the laws of the State, if the said offense is committed within the corporate limits of said town, as are hereinbefore conferred upon the policemen of Pocomoke City. Special policemen may be appointed from time to time by the Mayor, with the consent and approval of the Council, for a term of not to exceed two weeks, when it is deemed necessary for the good order and peace of the town, all of whom shall be vested with the same police powers during the term for which they shall have been appointed, as herein provided for policemen and night watchmen; and the Mayor and Council shall prescribe their duties and fix their compensation either by ordi-
