

the center of the road running from White Oak to Mt. Pisgah Church; thence along said line to the point of its intersection with the Montgomery County-Prince George County boundary; thence along the said Montgomery County-Prince George County Boundary to its intersection with the boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District as described in Chapter 122 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1918; thence along the said boundary line of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District to its intersection with the Marlboro Pike and thence along a line South 45 degrees west, true, to intersect a line 300 feet south of and parallel to the Marlboro Pike; thence along the said line 300 feet south of and parallel to the Marlboro Pike to the intersection of the said line with the southeastern boundary line of the District of Columbia; thence along the southeastern boundary line of the said District of Columbia to the east corner of the said District of Columbia; thence along the northeastern boundary of the District of Columbia to the north corner of the District of Columbia; thence along the northwestern boundary of the District of Columbia, across the Potomac River to the point of beginning.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That for the purposes of carrying out the provisions of this Act, said District shall be under the jurisdiction of a Commission of six members, of whom two shall be residents and taxpayers of that portion of the District within Montgomery County and the other shall be a resident of any part of Montgomery County and two shall be residents and taxpayers of that portion of the District within Prince George's County and the other shall be a resident of any part of Prince George's County. The members of said Commission shall be a body corporate, by the name of "The Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission," (hereinafter for abbreviation referred to in this Act as the Commission or Commission), with the right to use a common seal, to sue and be sued, to exercise all power granted to it in this Act and to do any and all other corporate acts for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act. The Chairman of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission shall be ex officio a member of the Commission hereby created, and be charged to the number allotted to the County of which he shall be a resident, and the remaining five members shall be appointed by the Governor of Maryland subject to confirmation by the Board of