

the mother or other person in charge of said child receive more than $500 or more than one-half the amount that each of his legitimate children, if any, would receive, or more than one-half the amount the descendants, if any, of a deceased legitimate child would receive as a class, if the father had died intestate. All money paid or ordered to be paid under this section shall be charged as a debt or debts against the estate of the said deceased father. Upon payment of the sum or sums ordered to be paid by the Court under this section, if a bond or recognizance has been given under section 5, the same shall be cancelled and the sureties thereon discharged.

12. Whenever any principal, surety or other person in interest, upon competent testimony, makes it appear to the satisfaction of any Court in which a bond or recognizance in any bastardy case is entered upon, that by reason of the death of the child or by reason of the payment of all dues arising under said bond or recognizance, or for any other reason, the bond or recognizance should be discharged, the Court may make such order of discharge, annulment or cancellation of the bond or recognizance, or such other order as may be deemed appropriate by the Court to discharge the obligors on the bond or recognizance.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of June, 1927.

Approved April 5, 1927.
