

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted as aforesaid, That the capital stock of said corporation shall be ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of the par value of one dollar a share. Said corporation shall not issue any certificates or contracts of insurance until the full amount of the authorized capital stock shall have been subscribed and paid for in cash, at not less than par, and shall have been invested in securities approved by the State Insurance Commissioner and actually deposited with said Commissioner for the protection of the policy holders of said Company. No policy or certificate shall be issued for more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) death benefits.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That two amendments made, and adopted by the Stockholders and Directors of the Corporation to the Charter of said Corporation under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, one to change the name of the said Corporation from the Imperial Life Insurance Company of Baltimore to the name of Fidelity Life Insurance Company of America, and one to increase the capital stock of the said Corporation from 10,000 shares of the par value of one dollar each to 12,000 shares of the par value of one dollar each, be and the same are hereby ratified and sanctioned.

Approved April 5, 1927.

CHAPTER 478.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 2 of Article 38 of the Annotated Code of Maryland, title "Fines and Forfeitures," so as to prohibit the payment of informer's fees.

(Vetoed.)

CHAPTER 479.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the Mayor and City Council of Cumberland to provide for the establishment of an area within, or partly within and partly without, the limits of the City of Cumberland, to be known as the Will's Creek Flood District, to adopt and put into effect a plan to prevent or lessen the danger from floods from Will's Creek