

Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Trout and Other Fish," be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments so as to read as follows:

Section 81. No person or persons shall take, catch, kill, fish or fish for any Small-mouth Bass, Large-mouth Bass also called Straw Bass; Green or Oswego Bass, Crappie, Grass or Calico Bass; Rock Bass otherwise known as Red-eye or Goggle-eye or any other species or varieties of fresh fishes commonly known as Bass within the waters of the State of Maryland above a point where the tide ebbs and flows between the fifteenth day of April and the thirtieth day of June, both dates inclusive, and then only by means of rod, hook and line. No person or persons shall take, catch, kill, fish, or fish for any of the fish or fishes named in Section 80 of Article 39 of Bagby's Annotated Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, as Game or Fresh Water Fish or Fishes, at any time in any of the waters in this State above a point where the tide ebbs and flows with any kind of seine, stir net, drag net, gig or gig iron, fish baskets or fish pots, eel weirs, bush or fascine nets or by any means or contrivance in the nature of a seine or trap which are in use at present or may be devised hereafter. Provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall be construed as prohibiting the use of the trout-line, rigged in any manner excepting live bait, and what is commonly known as a dip-net in catching any fish or fishes except the species or varieties of Bass mentioned above.

Section 86. No person shall catch or in any manner take or kill in any waters of this State above a point where the tide ebbs and flows, any of the game or fresh water fishes herein named, and no person or persons shall catch, take or kill or have in possession any brown trout, brook trout or rainbow trout or any other species of the salmon and trout family (except Squeteague) of any size less than six inches nor any large or small mouth bass less than nine inches or any pike or pickerel less than fourteen, measuring in case of each fish from the tip of the nose to the end of the caudal fin or tail, in any manner whatsoever, nor at any time save only with rod, line and hook or hooks baited with natural bait, or tied with artificial fly or with a spoon or spinner, each equipped with a hook, or hooks; provided, however, that nothing in this Section shall be construed as prohibiting the use
