A candidate for a public office in the government of the Town of Rockville shall be deemed to have been nominated by primary election when he, or someone in his behalf, shall file, at least ten days prior to the time for holding the election at which he desires to be voted on, with the Clerk of the Mayor and Council of Rockville a certificate signed by the judges or a majority of the judges of the primary election containing the name of the candidate, a statement of his political affiliation and a statement of the office which he seeks, and that he has been duly elected a candidate for said office.

483-F. Each political party which shall have polled ten per centum of the entire vote cast in the State at the next preceding General Election may hold annually in the Town of Rockville on the second Tuesday in April, at a place to be selected by the Mayor and Council of Rockville, a primary election at which any qualified and registered voter of the Town of Rockville and of the party holding such primary election shall be entitled to vote. The said Mayor and Council of Rockville shall give at least three weeks' notice by publication in some newspaper printed in the Town of Rockville, of the time and place of holding such primary election, and shall appoint, at least one week prior to the time for holding such election, three persons to act as judges of such election, which judges shall be subject to the same provisions of law as are judges of town elections. Ballots of the same form and arrangement as those used in town elections shall be furnished by the Mayor and Council of Rockville for each primary election and shall contain the name of each person who shall file with the Clerk of the Mayor and Council of Rockville at least ten days prior to the time for holding the primary election by which he seeks nomination, notice in writing of his desire to be voted on at such election, of the office for which he wishes to become a candidate and the party with which he is affiliated.

The Mayor and Council shall have power to provide by ordinance for the conducting, regulating or controlling of primary or town elections in any respect not covered by the specific provisions of this Act.
