An ACT regulating the Powers of the County Courts in Criminal Proceedings.

WHEREAS by an act of assembly passed at November session, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, entitled, An act respecting the punishment of criminals, among other things it provided, that any person presented or indicted may submit to the court, provided that such submission shall always be deemed so far an admission of the crime or offence charged, as to render the person submitting liable to the costs of the prosecution: And whereas it is considered, that great time and expense may be saved in authorising the several county courts, and court of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for Baltimore county, to determine on the whole merits of the case which may be to the said courts respectively submitted; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall and may be lawful for any person presented or indicted to submit to the court, at his or her discretion, and the court to which such case shall be submitted, is hereby authorised and empowered to decide on the whole merits of the case, which submission shall not be considered an admission of the fact, either to find the person so submitting guilty of the offence charged, or to charge him or her with the costs of prosecution, if not guilty of the offence.
