An ACT authorising Doctor James Cocke to remove certain Negroes into the State of Maryland.

WHEREAS the said James Cocke hath, by his petition set forth, that in the year eighteen hundred and four, he removed from Virginia to this state, but being then undetermined as to the place of his permanent residence, he did not avail himself of the power he enjoyed under the acts of assembly, to bring into this state, at the time of his said removal, or within twelve months thereafter, certain negroes which he was entitled to, and possessed of, under the last will and testament of his grand-father John Poythress, and his father James Cocke, and hath prayed that a law may pass, authorising him to remove the said negroes, as slaves, from the state of Virginia into the state of Maryland, in the same manner that he could have done at the time of his removal as aforesaid; and the prayer of the said petition appearing reasonable, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said James Cocke be and he is hereby authorised and empowered, at any time or times within twelve months after the passage of this act, to remove and bring into this state the said negro slaves, or any of them, and their issue, in the same manner that he might or could have done at the time of his own removal herein, any law to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding, provided the said doctor James Cocke register the said negroes, and their issue, in Baltimore county court, in the same manner as he by law would have been compelled to do had he have brought them into this state within one year after his removal from Virginia as aforesaid, and provided said negroes be of that description allowed by the laws of this state to be removed and brought into this state.
