An ACT authorising Philemon C. Blake, late Sheriff of Queen-Anne's County, to complete his Collection. Passed 6th of Jan. 1810.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said Philemon C. Blake be and he is hereby authorised and empowered to collect, until the first day of January, eighteen hundred and eleven, all balances due him as sheriff of Queen-Anne's county in the year eighteen hundred and eight, in the same manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said Philemon C. Blake, before he proceeds to execute or distrain the property of any person or persons for public dues in virtue of this act, to deliver to such person or persons chargeable with the same, at least thirty days previous to levying such execution or distress, an account, written in words at full length, of the public dues demanded of him, her or them, with an affidavit annexed, if required, that he hath not received any part thereof, nor any thing as security or satisfaction for the same, more than credit given, to the best of his knowledge.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the said Philemon C. Blake, before he derives any benefit from or under this act, shall lodge a copy of his collection books in the clerk's office of Queen-Anne's county, to be opened for the inspection of all persons interested in the same.

An ACT authorising a Lottery to raise a sum of Money for building a Wharf at the Town of Cambridge, in Dorchester County. Passed 6th of Jan. 1810.

BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall and may be lawful for Thomas Lockerman, James Chaplain, Joseph E. Muse, James Steele and Josiah Bayly, or a majority of them, to propose a scheme of a lottery, at any place within this state, for raising a sum of money, not exceeding three thousand dollars, and sell and dispose of the tickets at any place within the same, free from any tax, any law or ordinance of any incorporation within this state to the contrary notwithstanding; provided the said Thomas Lockerman, James Chaplain, Joseph E. Muse, James Steele and Josiah Bayly, or such majority of them as shall undertake to act under this law, shall, before the sale or disposal of any ticket or tickets in said lottery, give bond to the state of Maryland, in the penalty of six thousand dollars, conditioned that they will well and truly apply so much of the money arising therefrom, within six months after the drawing of said lottery shall commence, as will satisfy the fortunate adventurers for prizes drawn by them, and after deducting the necessary expenses incurred in said lottery, shall, within twelve months from the time the drawing of said lottery shall be completed, apply the money raised by such lottery to the building of a wharf at the town of Cambridge, in Dorchester county.

II. AND BE IT ENACTED, That it shall be the duty of the said commissioners, before they act as such, to lodge the bond made and entered into as aforesaid in the office of the clerk of Dorchester county court, there to be recorded, and upon such bond, or any office copy thereof, suit or suits may be instituted against the obligors therein, or any of them, or their legal representatives, for any breach or non-compliance with the conditions of the same.

An ACT to erect a Town in Montgomery County, and for other purposes. Passed 7th of Jan. 1810.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, by the petition of sundry inhabitants of Hyatt's-town, Montgomery county, that Jesse Hyatt did formerly lay off a parcel of land into lots for the purpose of erecting a town, a great part of which have since been purchased, and considerable improvements made thereon, and there being no record of the same, the titles of the proprietors thereof are precarious and uncertain, and it is prayed that the same may be surveyed, marked, bounded and erected into a town; therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Greenbury Howard, Edward Burgess, junior, and John H. Smith, be and they are hereby appointed commissioner, who shall, on or before the first day of August next, meet at Hyatt's-town aforesaid, and having so met, the said
