cuted and acknowledged by William D. Glover to Henrietta Glover, on the third day of October eighteen hundred and five, at which time the said Henrietta was sole and unmarried, for a lot or parcel of ground in Cambridge, in Dorchester county: And whereas the said William Rich, and Henrietta his wife, have further set forth, that by an error committed by the writer of said deed the habendum and tenendum, as well as the warranty in said deed, are made to convey the idea that Henrietta Glover was the grantor in said deed and William D. Glover the grantee, and have prayed that a law may pass to rectify said error; and the prayer of the said petitioners being reasonable, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said deed shall be as valid and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as if the habendum, tenendum and warranty, in said deed, had been correspondent with the other parts of the said deed and the acknowledgment thereof.

An ACT for the relief of John Smithson, of Harford County.

WHEREAS John Smithson, of Harford county, hath represented, by his petition to this general assembly, that a certain road in said county, authorised to be opened by an act of the general assembly, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, was laid out through his land while he was a minor, and without his consent, in such a manner as to subject him to great expenses and inconveniencies, and that he hath never received any compensation for the damages done him by said road, and hath prayed that he may be compensated for the damages which he hath sustained; and his prayer appearing reasonable, therefore,

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland; That Thomas Poteet, senior, John Doran and Joshua Rutledge, be and they are hereby authorised, empowered and directed, to ascertain what damages, if any, have been sustained by a certain John Smithson, of Harford county, by reason of a certain road laid out through his land in pursuance of a law passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, chapter twenty-one, and make return of the amount of damages aforesaid, if any, so by them ascertained, to the next levy court which shall happen thereafter, and the same shall be thereupon by said court levied and collected as other county charges are, and paid to John Smithson, or order.

III. AND BE IT ENACTED, That before the aforesaid Thomas Poteet, senior, John Doran and Joshua Rutledge, proceed to ascertain such damages, they and each of them shall take the following oath before some person competent to administer the same, viz. "I, A. B. do swear, or affirm, (as the case may be,) that I will faithfully, without favour or partiality, ascertain the damages, if any, sustained by John Smithson, by reason of a road passing through his land, in pursuance of a law passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, chapter twenty-one."
