

(e) Continue the proceeding and place the child in its own home or in the custody of a relative or other suitable person, or duly authorized association, agency, society or institution for a certain designated period subject to the orders of the said Magistrate for Juvenile Cases.

(f) Render such other and further judgment as the said Magistrate for Juvenile Cases may deem just and required by law.

272F. That whenever a child over the age of 14 years is brought before the said Magistrate for Juvenile Cases, upon a petition alleging delinquency, and the conduct alleged in the petition would constitute a capital or otherwise infamous crime; the said Magistrate for Juvenile Cases may waive jurisdiction after investigation and then proceed in like manner as Justice of the Peace, may now or hereafter, be authorized to proceed in like Criminal Cases, where the defendant is an adult, if such action shall appear to be in the public interest or for the welfare of the child; provided, however, that whenever a child over 15 years of age is brought before the said Magistrate for Juvenile Cases for conduct which would constitute a capital or otherwise infamous offense, upon application of the State's Attorney for Washington County and with the approval of a Judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of this State, the said Magistrate for Juvenile Cases shall cease to have jurisdiction and shall proceed in like manner as Justice of the Peace, may now or hereafter, be authorized to proceed in like Criminal cases, where the defendant is an adult.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.
