

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the commissioners shall themselves serve without compensation, but that they shall establish a reasonable compensation for the treasurer, and other employes of the said town.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That before any elective or appointive office of the said town of Eagle Harbor shall enter upon his or her duties he or she shall make oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths in said Prince George's County that he or she will diligently and faithfully discharge the duties of his or her office and he or she shall file a certificate of such oath with the clerk or chairman of said commissioners which shall become part of the record of said town.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the treasurer shall give bond to the commissioners in such penalty and with such surety or sureties as said commissioners may require, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his or her office. The premium on said bond shall be paid for by the town commissioners.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the said commissioners shall annually appoint one or more health officers for the said town, who shall perform such duties as the commissioners may require by such health ordinances as they may pass for the protection and preservation of the health of the citizens of the town.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the commissioners may pass such ordinances, not inconsistent with law, as may be for the best interests of the town, and necessary for the preservation of health, safety and morals of the said town, and may provide in such ordinances the penalties and punishments for the violation thereof, and may provide for the enforcement of said ordinances by a prosecution before any Justice of the Peace of Prince George's County. The said commissioners shall have supervision over all sidewalks, streets and alleys of the said town, but shall not in any way interfere with the lawful public use of any county roads running through the said town. For the purpose of town taxation the commissioners shall adopt the county assessment of all real estate, and shall make up a full and complete list of the said property in the said town with the names and addresses of the owners thereof on or before the first day of July of each year. As soon thereafter as it is practicable, the said commissioners shall by ordinance levy a tax not to exceed twenty-five cents (25c) per one hundred dollars ($100) on such assessed real estate as the needs of the town may require. Said tax shall be levied as of July first of each year,
