

26. Any person knowingly and wilfully procuring, or attempting to procure any allowance or relief, by false testimony or representation, for herself or for a person not entitled thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) and not more than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250) or by imprisonment in the County Jail of the county wherein the offense occurs or the City Jail of Baltimore City, for a period of not more than six months or by fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court.

27. Nothing in this sub-title shall be construed to affect or interfere with the provisions of the laws of Maryland as now existing relating to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City, the Circuit Courts of the State of Maryland, or the Juvenile Court of Baltimore City, in regard to the custody and control of infants.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.

CHAPTER 402.

AN ACT to repeal Sections 11, 45, 56 and 81 of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Governor—Executive and Administrative Departments," sub-titles "General Provisions," "State Manual," "Parole Commissioner," and "State Librarian"; Section 11 relating to appropriations in the 1922 Budget Bill in case of Reorganization of the several State Departments, and the other sections relating, respectively, to appropriations to the Secretary of State, Parole Commissioner and State Librarian.

WHEREAS, since the adoption of the Budget Amendment, sections of the Code providing for specific appropriations to the several departments are useless and superfluous; therefore

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 11, 45, 56 and 81 of Article 41 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Gov-
