

title "Attachments," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, to read as follows:

49. The plaintiff in an attachment, before execution on any judgment of condemnation shall be issued, shall give bond to the defendant in such penalty as the justice of the peace shall direct, not less than double the amount of the judgment of condemnation, with good and sufficient security to be approved by the said justice and conditioned to make restitution of the property so condemned, or the value thereof, and to pay such damages as may be awarded to the defendant, if the defendant shall at any time within six months and a day from the date of issuing the attachment appear, either in person or by his agent, before the justice issuing such attachment, or before some other justice of the same county, and make it appear that the plaintiff has satisfied the said debt, or show that it ought not to be paid, or that the said defendant was not indebted to the plaintiff at the time of issuing said attachment.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.
