

"Farmers' Institutes," said sections relating to appropriations to the Library Commission and for farmers' institutes.

WHEREAS, since the adoption of the Budget Amendment, sections of the Code providing for specific appropriations to the several departments are useless and superfluous; therefore SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 172 and 218 of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Public Education," sub-titles "Chapter 15. Public Libraries" and "Farmers' Institutes," be and they are hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.

CHAPTER 414.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Chapter 703 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, Session of 1927 entitled "An Act to authorize and direct the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to make rules and regulations for the construction of buildings within the Maryland Washington Metropolitan District of said County, as established by the General Assembly of Maryland of 1927, and to provide for the appointment of a building inspector and to prescribe penalties for failure to comply with the provisions of said building regulations," so as to authorize, direct and empower the County Commissioners of Montgomery County to make rules and regulations for the installation of electric wiring systems in all buildings erected in the Maryland Washington Metropolitan District of said County and to provide for the appointment and compensation of an assistant to the County Building Inspector; and to authorize said County Commissioners to exempt such towns and special taxing areas from the provisions of this Act the building regulations of which and the enforcement of such building regulations are approved by said County Commissioners.
