

this Act, or of said regulations shall be deemed sufficient cause in itself for the issuance of such injunction when applied for, and no further cause need be alleged or sworn; and provided further that the County Commissioners of Montgomery County be and they are hereby authorized to exempt from the provisions of this Act such town or towns or special taxing areas in which the County Commissioners may determine that the building regulations and the enforcement thereof are adequate and equally effective as are the regulations passed by said Commissioners under the provisions of this Act.

2. That the County Commissioners are hereby directed and empowered to appoint or employ some suitable person as County Building Inspector, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the County Commissioners and shall be paid such sum or sums as the County Commissioners or a majority of them shall determine. That the inspector of buildings appointed as aforesaid, shall have the supervision of the construction of all buildings erected in said district and shall see that the rules and regulations of the County Commissioners relating to the construction of said buildings shall be complied with, and he shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the County Commissioners aforesaid not inconsistent with this Act, provided, that any person or persons violating any of the rules and regulations so promulgated by the County Commissioners under the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof in the Circuit Court or Police Court for Montgomery County, shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars; and the said County Commissioners are hereby further authorized and empowered to appoint and employ an assistant to the building inspector, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the County Commissioners and shall be paid such compensation as the County Commissioners shall determine and who shall under the direction of the County Building Inspector perform such duties as may be required in enforcing the Building Code for Montgomery County.

3. That it shall be the duty of said inspector of buildings to visit and inspect all theatres, hotels, public halls, churches, schoolhouses and buildings used for public assemblages and all manufactories employing twenty-five or more persons, now erected, or that may be hereafter erected, for the purpose of ascertaining if said buildings have the proper means of exit in case of fire or panic and if, on examination he shall deter-
