SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 330M, 330N and 330O of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County," sub-title "Hurlock" as enacted by Chapter 468 of the Acts of 1920 of the General Assembly of Maryland; and that Section 331 of Article 10 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Dorchester County, sub-title "Hurlock," as enacted by Chapter 240 of the General Assembly of Maryland, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments; and adding thereto five new sections to follow immediately after Section 334, and to be designated as Sections 335, 336, 337, 338 and 339, all of the aforementioned sections shall be, and read as follows:

330M. On the first Wednesday in April following any levy the Clerk shall proceed to levy an execution on the property, and the claim for taxes shall, upon the said first Wednesday in April become an execution. He or she may seize the real and leasehold property charged on the assessment books to the delinquent, and any personal goods and chattels belonging to the same, and such seizure shall become a lien on the personal property seized from the time of seizure. He or she may proceed to sell either from the real, leasehold or personal property, or so much as may be necessary for his purpose, at public sale, to the highest bidder, on giving twenty days' previous notice, in the case of real and leasehold property, of the time, place, and terms of sale, by advertisement inserted in some newspaper published in the town of Hurlock, and in the case of personal property, by giving ten days' previous notice thereof by handbills posted in four conspicuous places therein. At the day appointed for the same, the Clerk shall attend, and offer and sell so much of the property seized as may be necessary to pay taxes, interest and expenses. In the case of personal property, the sale shall at once vest the title thereto in the purchaser.
