

for, or if any insufficient price be bid for them, they may subsequently be disposed of under the direction of said County Commissioners, or a majority of them, at a private sale, upon the best terms they can obtain for the same; and provided further that said County Commissioners, in their discretion, shall have the right to reject any and all bids.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the actual proceeds of the sale of said bonds shall be used exclusively for the following purposes, to wit:

(a) For the payment of the cost of engraving or printing of said bonds, and for the payment of the cost of advertising authorized by this Act and all other incidental expenses in connection with the issuance of said bonds;

(b) The remainder of the proceeds from the sale of the said bonds shall be paid over to the Treasurer of Kent County, and deposited by him in a special account at interest in such bank or banks as the said Treasurer may determine. The money shall be used exclusively for the construction and improvement of roads and bridges in Kent County by the State Roads Commission of Maryland, and for the purchase and acquisition of land, rights of way and for any necessary expenses incident to the construction and improvement of roads and bridges by the State Roads Commission in said County. Payments out of the proceeds from the sale of bonds shall be made from time to time by the Treasurer on proper vouchers presented to him by the State Roads Commission. The roads and bridges to be constructed or improved shall be designated by the County Commissioners of Kent County, subject to the approval of the State Roads Commission.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, the Board of County Commissioners of Kent County shall, for the year 1929, and annually thereafter, until all of said bonds issued under the authority of this Act shall mature and be redeemed, levy a tax upon the assessable property in said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds outstanding, said taxes to be collected as other taxes levied in said county are collected.

Any interest which may accrue on the bank deposits made by the Treasurer of the proceeds from the sale or sales of said bonds shall not be expended by the State Roads Commission, but said interest moneys shall be withdrawn from the special account, from time to time and applied to the payment of the interest when due on said bonds outstanding, in which event the Board of County Commissioners may levy a tax sufficient
