CHAPTER 494.

AN ACT to add an additional section to Article 93 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Testamentary Law," to be known as Section 305B, in reference to contingent remainders.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be added to Article 93 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Testamentary Law," said new section to follow immediately after Section 305A and to be known as Section 305B and to read as follows:

305B. . Any contingent remainder arising under any deed, will or other instrument executed after July 1, 1929, shall be capable of taking effect, notwithstanding the determination, by forfeiture, surrender, or merger, or otherwise, of any preceding estate of freehold, in the same manner in all respects as if such determination had not happened; and it shall not be necessary to appoint trustees to support such contingent remainder in order to prevent the destruction thereof.

Approved April 11, 1929.
