

CHAPTER 501.

AN ACT to add an additional section to Article 16 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Chancery," to be known as Section 267A, relating to courts of equity assuming jurisdiction over trust estates.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be added to Article 16 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Chancery," said new section to follow immediately after Section 267 and to be known as Section 267A and to read as follows :

267A. Whenever in any will, deed or other instrument executed after July 1, 1929, real or personal property is given to a trustee with or without a personal or discretionary power of sale or investment of any assets of the trust estate, any person having under the will, deed or other instrument an interest in the trust estate shall be entitled to have the trust estate administered under the supervision of a court of equity, and may apply to the court to assume jurisdiction thereof, and the court shall thereupon assume jurisdiction over the entire trust estate or such part thereof as it may deem proper, unless a contrary intention be expressly stated in the instrument creating the trust; and the court may thereafter, if it deems proper, require that all persons interested be made parties to the proceeding.

Approved April 11, 1929.

CHAPTER 502.

AN ACT to repeal Section 221 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Inventory and List of Debts," said section relating to notice of appraisalment.
