

384. Examinations for license to practice Chiropractic shall be made by said board according to the method deemed by it to be most practicable and expeditious to test the applicant's qualifications. Such application shall be designated by a number instead of his or her name so that the identity will not be discovered or disclosed to the members of the board until after the examination papers are graded.

(b) All examinations shall be made in writing, the subjects of which shall be as follows: Anatomy, physiology, symptomatology, chiropractic orthopedy, principles of chiropractic and adjusting, nerve tracing, chemistry, hygiene, bacteriology, and chiropractic analysis as taught by Chiropractic schools and colleges. A license shall be granted to all applicants who shall correctly answer seventy-five per centum (75%) of all questions asked, and if any applicant shall fail to answer correctly sixty per centum (60%) of the questions on any branch of said examination he or she shall not be entitled to a license.

(c) Chiropractic is hereby defined to be a drugless health system, the basic principle of which teaches that disease is caused by interference with the transmission of nerve impulses. The practice of Chiropractic is defined as diagnosis, the location of misaligned or displaced vertebrae of the human spinal column, the procedure preparatory to and the adjustment by hand of such misaligned or displaced vertebrae of the spinal column and its articulations, by any method not including the use of drugs, surgery or obstetrics, nor any branch of medicine, nor osteopathy, for the purpose of relieving such interference.

386. (a) The State Board of Chiropractic Examiners may refuse to grant or may revoke a license to practice Chiropractic in this State, or may cause a licentiate's name to be removed from the records in the office of the recorder of deeds of this State upon any of the following grounds, to wit: The attempt to do other than is permitted under this license in an effort to deceive the public the employment of fraud or deception in applying for a license or in passing an examination provided for in this sub-title, the practice of Chiropractic under a false or assumed name, or the impersonation of another practitioner of like or different name, the conviction of a crime involving moral turpitude, habitual intemperance, in the use of ardent spirits, narcotics or stimulants to such an extent as to incapacitate him or her for the performance of his or her professional duties. Any person who is a licentiate, or is an applicant for a license to practice Chiropractic against whom any of the foregoing grounds for revoking or refusing a license is presented to said Board with the view of having the Board revoke or refuse to grant a license, shall be furnished with a copy of the
