

4. The sole surviving parent of any minor child may, by will duly executed, appoint a suitable guardian of the person or property, or both, of his or her child, whether born at the time of making the will or afterwards; provided, however, that any parent shall have the power, by a duly executed will, to appoint a guardian as to the property which his or her child, whether born at the time of making the will or afterwards, may inherit from him or her. Every such testamentary guardian shall qualify in like manner and with like conditions, and shall have the same powers and perform the same duties with regard to the person, or property, or both of the ward as a guardian appointed by the Orphans' Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all laws and parts of laws of the State of Maryland inconsistent with the provisions of this Act be and the same are hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the first day of June, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.
