

CHAPTER 570.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 29 of Article 75 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Pleadings, Practice and Process at Law," sub-title "II. Practice," sub-heading "Abatement and Revivor," said amendments providing that no action for injuries to the person shall abate by reason of the death of the defendant; and to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 106 of Article 93 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Testamentary Law," sub-title "Debts," said amendments providing that executors and administrators shall be liable to be sued in any action for injuries to the person which might have been maintained against their testator or intestate, provided such action be commenced within six calendar months after the death of their testator or intestate; and to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 1 of Article 67 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Negligence Causing Death," said amendments providing that executors and administrators shall be liable to actions for damages to which their testator or intestate would have been liable, in cases of death caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, provided such actions be commenced within six calendar months after the death of their testator or intestate.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 29 of Article 75 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Pleadings, Practice and Process at Law," sub-title "II. Practice," sub-heading "Abatement and Revivor," be and it is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, so as to read as follows:

29. No action of ejectment, waste, partition, dower, replevin, or any personal action, including appeals from judgments rendered by justices of the peace, in any court of law in this State shall abate by the death of either or any of the parties to such action; but upon the death of any defendant, the action shall be continued and the heir, administrator or executor of the defendant, or other person interested on the part of the defendant, may appear to such action; and in case
