

To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Alice S. Englar, deceased, of Carroll County of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($150) to the Church of the Brethren at Pipe Creek, Carroll County, for the care of the graves of her family, and to the bequest of One Hundred Dollars ($100) to the Church of the Brethren at Westminster, in said county; the said will being probated February 27, 1928, and recorded in the office of the Register of Wills for Carroll County in Liber W. F. B. No. 13, folio 378.

To the conveyance by Howard W. H. Taylor and Emma E. Taylor, his wife, to the Lafayette Square Prebyterian Church of the city of Baltimore, by deed dated April 16, 1925 and recorded in Liber S. C. L. No. 4372, folio 3 of the Land Records of Baltimore City of the lot on the north side of Lanvale Street in Baltimore City twenty-three (23) feet by ninety-nine (99) feet subject to a ground rent of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00).

To the bequest contained in the last will and testament of Reverdy J. Winebrenner, deceased, of Frederick County, of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) to the Glade Church in said county; the said will being recorded in the office of the Register of Wills of Frederick County in Liber G. E. S. No. 2, folio 198.

To the gifts, bequests and devises contained in the last will and testament of Margaret K. Reed, deceased, of Calvert County, Maryland, to and for the use of sundry ministerial persons, churches and denominations. That is to say:

(1) To the Vestry of All Saints Parish, Calvert County, Maryland, all of my undivided interest in that portion of the real estate inherited by me from my father, James P. King, which is situated in the Third Election District of Calvert County, Maryland, on the Patuxent River, and known as the "River Farm containing two hundred and fifty (250) acres of land, more or less: including also any additional estate or interest in said farm which I may acquire from my said sister if she should die before me. And without imposing any trust or legal obligation, I request that the income from said property be used for the support of the minister of said parish.

(2) To the Vestry of All Saints Parish, of Calvert County, Maryland, the sum of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) requesting that the sum be safely invested by said vestry, and that the annual income thereof be appropriated to the repair and restoration of all the private burial lots within the enclosures of the All Saints Church edifice, and the placing of flowers every year over the graves of my father and family in said enclosure, and in keeping in good condition and repair the grounds within the said church premises; that any excess of