

said income not required for such purposes be used by the said vestry in its discretion for the benefit of said parish.

(3) One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) unto the Reverend William Adam McClenthen, or should he die before me, then I give and bequeth the said sum to the Reverend William Franklin Venables; in either case absolutely.

(4) All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate and property, real and personal, which I may be in any manner entitled to dispose of at the time of my death, unto the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Maryland, and I request that the income thereof be used for such church purposes as the Bishop of said Diocese may direct, or for the Diocesan Missions; but it is my intent that this devise and bequest to said corporation shall be absolute and free from any trust.

To the following bequests and devises contained in the last will and testament and codicils thereto of Jacob S. Dyer, late of Baltimore City, deceased, duly admitted to probate by the Orphans' Court of Baltimore City, on September 13, 1927, and recorded in the Office of the Register of Wills of Baltimore City, Liber E. R. D. No. 159, folio 165, etc., that is to say:

(a) To a bequest of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) and to an additional bequest of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000) to the Kelso Home for Orphans of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Baltimore City.

(b) To devise to the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Columbia Street Station in the City of Baltimore of two yearly ground rents of Seventy-five Dollars ($75.00) each issuing out of two lots of ground in Baltimore City on the east side of Bentalou Street, and described in a Deed from George W. Schoenhals and wife to Jacob S. Dyer dated December 1, 1922, and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore City, in Liber S. C. L. No. 3940, folio 47, etc., known as Nos. 921 and 923 North Bentalou Street; and also to a devise to the Trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Columbia Street Station in the City of Baltimore, of four yearly ground rents of Sixty-five Dollars ($65.00) each, issuing out of four lots of ground in Baltimore City, on the north side of Lexington Street, and described as the second, third, fourth and sixth lots in a Deed from Jacob E. Thomas and wife to Jacob S. Dyer, dated October 25, 1901 and recorded among the Land Records of Baltimore City, in Liber R. O. No. 1927, folio 98, etc.

(c) To a devise to the Home for the Aged of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Baltimore City, of three yearly ground rents of Ninety Dollars ($90.00) each and one yearly ground rent of Seventy-two Dollars ($72.00) issuing out of four lots of
