

Two Hundred Dollars,' contained' in the Last Will and Testament of Isaac Winter, late of Carroll County, deceased.

(8) To the bequest "all the rest and remainder of the shares of said Carroll County Savings Bank of Uniontown that I possess, I give and bequeath unto "the Trustees of the Evangelical Lutheran Congregation of Winters Church" a body corporate, and "St. Lukes Winters Evangelical Lutheran Cemetery Co. of Carroll County, a body corporate, to be divided share and share alike. I give said shares unto the said corporations absolutely, but it is my wish and desire for the principal to remain intact and said corporations to use the income or revenue from said shares for the support of the church and cemetery," contained in the Last Will and Testament of Isaac Winter, late of Carroll County, deceased.

(9) To the bequest "to the trustees, or other properly constituted authorities of the Lutheran Church commonly known and called Winters Church, the sum of $100, in trust, to be by them safely invested at interest, and the interest arising therefrom shall be paid annually to the Sexton of said church or such other person or persons as may have charge of the Cemetery at said church, and to be so paid for the special care and proper keeping of my grave and my husband's grave," contained in the Last Will and Testament of Sarah Engleman, late of Carroll County, deceased.

(10) To the bequest "To Immanuel Lutheran Church $500 with the understanding they keep our cemetery lot in good condition. This money to be invested and what is needed to keep lot in good order, the remainder to go to ministers salary," contained in the Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Trump, late of Carroll County, deceased.

(11) To the bequest "As it was the wish of my sister Sarah C. Trump I Will $500 to a cemetery fund, if such shall be incorporated by the Lutheran & Reformed to be put on interest (hoping other bequests may be made) from which annually improvements may be made, and the "city of the dead" given a commendable appearance." If not used—trustees appointed and plans executed &c. within one year after my demise, this money shall be added to the residue," contained in the Last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Trump, late of Carroll County, deceased.

(12) "The $500 given to joint cemetery company if incorporated, I now devise to the New Cemetery Co. incorporated by the Lutheran Church so that our lot is kept in good condition. To the Lutheran Church $300, Immanuel Manchester. To the W. H. & Foreign Missionary of the Md. Synod U. L. C. $200."
