

intoxicating liquors. It is possible that some situation may arise in the future in which these laws would be revived and made operative.

DUPLICATE BILLS.

Chapter 436, Senate Bill 373, creating the Maryland Water Front Commission, is a duplicate of Chapter 322, House Bill 481, which has been approved.

Chapter 114, House Bill 14, relating to the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia, is a duplicate of Chapter 50, Senate Bill 11, which has been approved.

Chapter 455, Senate Bill 297, relating to physically handicapped children, is a duplicate of Chapter 152, House Bill 362, which has been approved.

Chapter 335, House Bill 325, relating to Federal liens, is a duplicate of Chapter 466, Senate Bill 179, which has been approved.

Chapter 176, House Bill 184, creating a Commission on Higher Education, is a duplicate of Chapter 56, Senate Bill 147, which has been approved.

Chapter 387, House Bill 17, relating to Potomac River Bridges, is a duplicate of Chapter 542, Senate Bill 286, which has been approved.

Chapter 469, Senate Bill 272, relating to taxation of surety companies, is incorporated in the Tax Revision Bill, Chapter 226, Senate Bill 278, which has been approved.

Chapter 117, House Bill 226, re-organizing the State Auditor's Department, was incorporated in the Tax Revision Bill, Chapter 226, Senate Bill 278.

Chapter 365, House Bill 287, relating to Motor Vehicle Registration Fees, is covered by Chapter 407, House Bill 374.

Chapter 9, House Bill 79, relating to Terrapin, is covered by Chapter 266, House Bill 207.

Chapter 177, House Bill 252, relating to Duck Blinds, is covered by Chapter 366, House Bill 591.

Chapter 463, Senate Bill 61, relating to Fish Licenses, is covered by Chapter 471, Senate Bill 172.

Chapter 204, Senate Bill 19, relating to Fish Ladders, is covered by Chapter 471, Senate Bill 172.

Chapter 344, House Bill 531, relating to Ducking, is covered by Chapter 366, House Bill 591.