

Anne's County, Maryland, for sealed proposals for the negotiation of said bonds, and on a certain day to be named in said advertisements, said County Commissioners shall in their office in the Court House, in Centreville, open all bids received and award the said bonds to the highest bidder, provided no bid less than par shall be accepted, reserving, however, unto themselves the right to reject any and all bids and to re-advertise as herein prescribed for other bids.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, shall in each and every year levy upon the assessable property in Queen Anne's County, Maryland, such sums of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on said bonds as said interest shall become due, and also to levy such sums in addition as may be required to pay or redeem said bonds as the same mature from time to time until all said bonds shall have been paid.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the proceeds of the sale of said bonds shall be paid out by the County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County upon proper vouchers submitted by the Treasurer of the said Building Committee, and that all contracts and agreements entered into by said Building Committee shall not be lawful or binding until they have been formally approved and ratified by the aforesaid County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County, and that none of the money herein referred to shall be paid out by the said County Commissioners of Queen Anne's County to the said Treasurer of the Building Committee for the proposed Stevensville High School, unless and until the bids, plans and contracts for such site, high school building and equipment have been ratified and approved by the said County Commissioners.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That William E. Denney, Dr. John R. Benton, E. Carville Tolson, Harry T. Norman, Harry Breeding and John M. Norman be and they are hereby created and constituted the Stevensville High School Building Committee subject to the limitations here and before mentioned for the selection of a site, and the erection and equipping of a high school building in or near the town of Stevensville, Queen Anne's County, Maryland.
