

tration. There shall be a registration of the qualified voters of the Town of Delmar on the fourth Tuesday in March and the first Tuesday in April, 1929, and on the same dates, each and every two years thereafter, at which times said Registrars shall sit for the performance of their duties. The said Registrars shall sit from eight o'clock A. M. until six o'clock P. M., and shall record upon the registration books the names of all persons who are qualified voters of the Town of Delmar under the provisions of this Act, and shall strike from said books the names of all deceased persons and all persons who are not qualified voters under the provisions of this Act. Any person who shall have removed from the corporate limits of the said town and remained absent for a period of six consecutive months prior to registration days shall not be a qualified voter in said town. When the Registrars shall complete their duties, they shall return the registration books to the Clerk of the Commissioners of Delmar, together with the names of any and all persons who shall have been refused registration by them. If anyone shall feel aggrieved by the action of the Registrars in refusing to register or strike off the name of any person or by any other action, such person feeling aggrieved may appeal to the Commissioners of Delmar, the decision of the majority of whom shall be final.

25. The Commissioners of said town shall appoint three persons as judges of the election to be held on the second Tuesday in April, 1929, and likewise appoint three persons for the elections to be held every two years thereafter. The judges so appointed shall appoint a clerk. The polls shall be opened at seven o'clock A. M., and remain open until four o'clock P. M., at such place as may be designated by the Commissioners, and the judges shall file with the Commissioners a report, and certificates of election shall be signed by the judges to the Commissioners so elected. The judges of election shall, before proceeding to act, take oath before some Justice of the Peace of Wicomico County to permit all qualified voters to vote, and that they will have said election conducted fairly and that no one will be allowed to vote unless duly qualified and registered.

27. At their regular meeting after the election to be held on the second Tuesday in April, 1929, and at their regular meeting every two years thereafter, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the Commissioners shall elect one of their members president, and shall also elect some person as clerk of
