

if any insufficient price be bid for them, they may be subsequently disposed of under the direction of the Governor, Comptroller of the Treasury, and Treasurer, or a majority of them, at a private sale upon the best terms they can obtain for the same; provided they shall not be sold at private sale for less than par and accrued interest.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be paid by the Treasurer of this State, upon the warrant of the Comptroller, out of the proceeds of the sale of bonds or certificates of indebtedness for the payment of the expenses of engraving, printing and other outlays connected with the issue of the loan hereby authorized, and for the payment of the advertising directed by this Act, and all other incidental expenses connected with the execution of its provisions in connection with said loan.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the actual cash proceeds of the sale of the certificates of indebtedness to be issued under this Act shall be used exclusively for the following purposes, to wit:

The Comptroller shall, immediately upon the sale of and payment for said bonds or certificates of indebtedness, first return to and credit the Treasury with whatever advances or payments may have been made as provided for by Section 5 of this Act. The remainder of the proceeds of said loan shall be credited on the books of the State Treasury Department to the credit of the State Roads Commission and shall be disbursed by the State Treasurer, upon warrant of the Comptroller, from time to time as and when the same shall become necessary, for the following purposes: One-fifth of the remainder shall be used and expended in the City of Baltimore for grading, paving and curbing of such streets and highways or portions thereof, as may be selected by the State Roads Commission. After the foregoing expenditures have been provided for, the Commission shall use and expend the entire residue of the net proceeds received from the issues of 1929 and 1930 of said bonds or certificates of indebtedness, with the aid of Federal Funds appropriated for such purpose by any Act or Acts of Congress, for the construction, in the several counties of the State, of such rural post roads as may be selected by said Commission. The money expended for such post roads in each of the said counties to be determined according to the respective road mileage of said counties.
