

quents, as hereinafter provided, as are allowed collectors of taxes under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws, and the further sum of twenty-five cents for each person's property assessed by him, and five cents for each dog or bitch returned to the County Commissioners and by them ordered to be entered on the assessment books of the county; but dogs in the incorporated towns which impose a tax thereon shall not be assessed by the County Commissioners; said Treasurer shall, before entering upon his duties of his office, execute to the State of Maryland, two bonds, with sureties to be approved by the County Commissioners, one for fifteen thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful collection and payment to the State Treasurer of all State taxes levied and placed in his hands for collection and the faithful performance of all other duties devolving on him, and another bond for twenty-five thousand dollars, conditioned for the proper collection and disbursement of all taxes levied and placed in his hands for Kent County, and the faithful performance of all other duties devolving upon him; said bonds to be filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for said county.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.

CHAPTER 147.

AN ACT to repeal Section 55 of Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Lunatics and Insane," sub-title "Rosewood State Training School," said section relating to appropriations to said institution.

WHEREAS, since the adoption of the Budget Amendment, sections of the Code providing for specific appropriations to the several departments are useless and superfluous; therefore SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 55 of Article 59 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Lunatics and Insane," sub-title "Rosewood State Training School," be and it is hereby repealed.
