

bonds have been issued, and for no other purposes whatever, any bonus or any amount received over and above the par value of said bonds to be apportioned and divided proportionately for the several purposes set out in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds, provided, however, that in case it shall not be necessary to use the full amount authorized herein for the acquisition of the site and the construction or improvement and equipment of the specific schools for which such money is appropriated, that then and in such case the balance in the hands of the Board of Education of Prince George's County for such specific appropriations may, with the approval of the County Commissioners, be applied to the purchase of sites, the erection of new buildings, the addition to or the alteration of existing school buildings, and the equipment of such new additions or alterations at other places in said county, where, in the discretion of the Board of Education, the same may be needed. The Board of Education of Prince George's County is hereby given full power and authority to do all things necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, even though the same may not be specifically mentioned herein or in the general school laws of the State.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That in order to redeem said bonds and to pay the interest and principal thereof when and as the same may become due, the County Commissioners of Prince George's County are hereby authorized and directed to levy in each and every year upon the assessable basis of said Prince George's County, a tax sufficient to pay the bonds maturing during such year in accordance with the provisions hereof, and to pay interest on all of the bonds authorized by this Act which may be outstanding and unredeemed in such year, and the proceeds of such levy when collected and paid shall be used for the purpose, and for no other purpose than that for which such levy was made.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That in case the Board of Education of Prince George's County shall determine that it is inadvisable to construct any of the school buildings or additions to schools or to purchase any of the sites specifically mentioned in Section 2 of this Act, but may consider it advisable to spend the amounts specifically set out for said schools, additions or sites, or any portion thereof, elsewhere in the construction of school buildings or additions to school buildings or the purchase of sites, then and in such event the said Board
