

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the County Treasurer for Wicomico County shall keep in a book to be provided for that purpose, a full registry of the bonds sold, the serial numbers of said bonds, the names of the purchasers, the amounts realized thereon, and all redemptions and maturities thereof.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of Wicomico County, for adoption or rejection, at a special election to be held on Tuesday, May 21, 1929, after publication of notice of election and of the question to be voted on in two newspapers of general circulation in Wicomico County, once a week for two weeks immediately preceding date of said election, and there shall be printed on the ballots at said election the words "For School Loan" and "Against School Loan," with a square after said words in each case, for the (X) mark of the voter, and the voter may vote thereon by an (X) mark after his choice, and if there be a majority of votes cast in favor of said loan, then this Act and the provisions thereof shall go into effect immediately; and if there be a majority of votes cast against said loan, then this Act shall be null and void, and the said bonds shall not be issued. The provisions of the General Election Laws of the State of Maryland shall apply in all respects to the election held hereunder, except that the polls shall be open from the hours of eight o'clock A. M., to four o'clock P. M.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1929.
