

County and comprehensive reports of the activities of said Commission shall be published from time to time.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the said Building Commission is hereby given full and ample power to purchase sites, to make contracts, and enforce the execution of the same, to employ architects and workmen when necessary, to purchase materials, and generally to do any and all things under sound and customary business practice necessary in carrying out the provisions of this Act or incident thereto or a consequence thereof. And its conclusions as to the expenditure of the funds herein provided in the manner herein specified shall be binding upon the Board of Education of Anne Arundel County. Provided, in each and every case the contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder and after competitive bidding in usual course. The contract to be further secured by a bond with corporate security approved by the Board of Education of Anne Arundel County. The said Building Commission shall have the right, however, to reject any and all bids and to call for readvertisement, in its discretion, subject to the provisions of this Act. And provided further, that the funds herein enumerated and for the specific purposes herein outlined shall be expended as herein set forth and for no other purposes.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional and supplementary to and not in substitution for or in conflict with any of the provisions of the general laws of this State relating to public schools, and the powers of the State Superintendent of Schools, in regard to the plans, construction and erection of public school buildings.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.

CHAPTER 204.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 90 of Article 39 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Fish and Fisheries," sub-title "Trout and Other