

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional and supplementary to, and not in substitution for or in conflict with, any of the provisions of the general laws of this State relating to Public Schools, and the powers of the State Superintendent of Schools, in regard to the plans, construction and erecting of public school buildings.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of paying the interest on said bonds, and for redeeming the said bonds as they mature, the said Board of County Commissioners shall, for the year 1929, and annually thereafter, until all of said bonds issued under the authority of this Act shall mature and be redeemed, levy a tax upon the assessable property of said county, sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds outstanding, and to redeem said bonds as they mature and become due, said taxes to be collected as other taxes levied in said county, are collected.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That if for any reason whatsoever, there should be a surplus of funds left in the hands of said School Building Commission after all expenditures have been made, in keeping with the terms of this Act, said surplus shall be paid back to the Board of County Commissioners of Howard County, to be used by them to retire said bonds.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and having been passed by a ye and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 2, 1929.
