

19. The local authorities of a city, village, town or county to which this Act is applicable having power to appropriate money therein may annually appropriate and cause to be raised by taxation in such city, village, town, or county, a sum sufficient to carry out the provisions of this Act.

20. The State Aviation Commission is hereby authorized to promulgate plans, ratings and regulations relating to the construction and maintenance of airports or landing fields used for public purposes in this State, which plans, ratings and regulations shall conform to and coincide with, so far as possible, the plans, ratings and regulations issued from time to time by the Department of Commerce, pursuant to the provisions of the United States Air Commerce Act of 1926, and amendments thereto. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to operate aircraft regularly for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire from any airport or landing field which has not been rated as safe for the purpose for which it is to be used, by the State Aviation Commission or the United States Secretary of Commerce. This sub-title shall not be construed to prevent the emergency or intermittent use of any field for aviation purposes when an authorized landing field is not available.

21. The State Aviation Commission is hereby authorized to promulgate plans, ratings and regulations relating to the construction and maintenance of airports or landing fields used for public purposes in this State, which plans, ratings and regulations shall conform to and coincide with the plans, ratings and regulations issued from time to time by the Department of Commerce, pursuant to the provisions of the United States Air Commerce Act of 1926, and amendments thereto. It shall be unlawful for any person or corporation to operate aircraft regularly for the purpose of carrying passengers for hire from any airport or landing field which has not been rated as safe for the purpose for which it is to be used, by the State Aviation Commission or the United States Secretary of Commerce. This sub-title shall not be construed to prevent the emergency or intermittent use of any field for aviation purposes when an authorized landing field is not available.

22. The State Aviation Commission is authorized and directed to promulgate such plans, ratings and regulations as
