

County in which said land, structures, stream bed, water way, water rights or water shed is located, as are provided for condemnation of land by public service corporations in the Public General Laws of Maryland now or thereafter in effect, and the Annapolis Water Company may likewise condemn the interest of any tenant, lessee or other person having any right or interest in said land, structures or buildings, stream bed, water way, water rights or water shed.

At any time after ten days after the return and recordation of the verdict or award in said proceedings, the Annapolis Water Company may enter and take possession of the property so condemned, upon first paying to the Clerk of the Court the amount of said award and all costs taxed to that date, notwithstanding any appeal or further proceedings upon the part of the defendant. At the time of said payment, however, the Annapolis Water Company shall give its corporate undertaking to abide by and fulfill any judgment in such appeal or further proceedings.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety, and being passed upon a yea and nay vote, supported by three-fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 8, 1929.
