

Code of Maryland (1924 Edition), title "Indictments—Violation of City or Town Ordinances," be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments to read as follows:

562. In every indictment or warrant for the violation of any ordinance of any incorporated city or town of this State or of the Board of County Commissioners of any county of this State or of the Special Taxing Area of any county of this State, it shall not be necessary to set forth a copy of the said ordinance, or any particular section thereof; but every such indictment or warrant shall be sufficient if it recites the number of the ordinance alleged to have been violated with the date of its passage, or if the ordinance has been embraced in a codification, if it refers to the number of the Article and section of such codification containing such ordinance, and conforms to the rules of law governing the framing of indictments or warrants for violation of Acts of the General Assembly of this State, and concludes "against the form of the ordinance in such case made and provided, and against the peace, government and dignity of the State."

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1929.

Approved April 11, 1929.

CHAPTER 246.

AN ACT to add a new section to the Code of Public Local Laws of Anne Arundel County to be known as Section 303C, requiring a license fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00) per annum of any person or persons engaged in auctioneering in Anne Arundel County.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That a new section be, and the same is, hereby added to the Code of Public Local Laws for Anne Arundel County, to come in after Section 303B and to be designated as Section 303C, and to read as follows:

303C. On and after June 1, 1929, it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to conduct an auction sale or sales within
