

included in the next succeeding levy forthwith paid in the State Treasury. Should any county or the City of Baltimore fail to levy a tax in said county or city for said amount when due said State, and fail at the time of levying other county or city taxes, thereafter, to levy the tax aforesaid to an amount sufficient to pay the indebtedness subsequently incurred, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to bring in the name of the State, an action against any of said counties in the Circuit Court of said counties, or against the City of Baltimore in the Superior Court of Baltimore City so failing aforesaid to enforce the levying of said tax for the recovery of the amount due the State as aforesaid. Upon the failure of any county or the City of Baltimore to levy such a tax as aforesaid to an amount sufficient to pay the amount then due the State, it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to charge such delinquent county or said city with the penalty of interest at one per cent. per month upon the amount of indebtedness for each month, until payment thereof and penalty thereon be paid. It shall be the duty of the County Treasurer and the Comptroller of Baltimore upon the collection of taxes herein required to be levied, to pay unto the State Treasurer the amount due and owing from said county or city at the time and in the manner required for the payment of State taxes collected, and the State Treasurer and the State Comptroller shall, upon the first day of July and January in each year transfer the full amount received from the counties and the City of Baltimore under the provisions of this Article to the account of the Maryland Workshop for the Blind. Taxes levied and collected in any county or the City of Baltimore for the purpose named in this Article shall be used to defray the expenses of the adult blind committed to the Maryland Workshop for the Blind, and shall not be transferred to any fund by the State, City or County authorities. Whenever the Maryland Workshop for the Blind holds an adult blind as from one county or the City of Baltimore, and the County Commissioners of such county, or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore makes a claim that such adult blind is not a proper charge against the said county or the City of Baltimore, and such County Commissioners or the Mayor and City Council of the City of Baltimore shall notify the State Comptroller that it is claimed that such adult blind is not a proper charge against their county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be; and shall claim that the said
