

herein set forth and shall not be diverted for any other purpose except upon approval by the Board of County Commissioners of Washington County, and any balance remaining unexpended of the amounts hereinbefore specified shall be retained by the County Commissioners of Washington County, and applied by them in their discretion to school purposes.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of Education of Washington County shall award the contracts for the erection of said school buildings, provided for in this Act, equipping the same with heating plants and lighting and water fixtures, to the lowest responsible bidders therefor, respectively, after the said Board shall have advertised for bids therefor, provided, however, that said board shall have the right to reject any or all bids. Said Board of Education shall require the successful bidder or bidders to whom said contracts, or any of them, are awarded, to make a contract in writing for the faithful performance of his or their work, and said contractor or contractors shall agree in said contracts to pay all laborers employed by him or them, on said buildings, and for all materials used in the construction and equipping of the same, and shall give bond, acceptable to said board, for the faithful performance of his or their contract. The said Board of Education is hereby given full power and authority to employ an architect or architects and to do all things in connection with the construction and equipping of said buildings as may be necessary.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That if and whenever the said Board of Education shall determine upon the erection of either of the high school buildings designated in Section 4 hereof, and shall let the contract or contracts therefor as provided in Section 5 hereof, and shall desire that the work of the erection of said building or buildings shall be commenced and carried forward before it shall be possible to issue and sell a series of bonds as provided for in Section 2 hereof, the said The County Commissioners of Washington County are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow upon the faith and credit of said county such sums of money as shall be sufficient and necessary to meet and pay the contract price for such building or buildings as the work thereon shall progress, and payment therefor becomes due under said contracts, and to issue certificates of indebtedness for said sums so borrowed, and shall pay said certificates of indebtedness out of the proceeds of the sale of the first series of bonds issued thereafter.
