

printed in bold, plain roman capitals, twelve point (pica) type, appropriate instructions to the voter informing him or her of the number of persons for whom the voter may lawfully vote at such election, thus "Vote for One" or "Vote for Five." To the right of the name of each candidate upon the official ballot, opposite the name and in line therewith, shall be a square so printed as to give each voter a clear opportunity to designate by a cross (X) his or her choice of candidate. If at any election there be any question to be submitted to the popular vote, the said question shall be briefly explained upon said ballot and the words "For Proposition" and "Against Proposition" shall be placed thereunder so that the voter may clearly indicate in the manner hereinbefore pointed out, whether the voter may wish his or her ballot cast for or against the propositions submitted. All ballots used in all town elections of Vienna shall be printed in the same uniform type upon plain white printing paper of ordinary book weight in black ink, and the name of all candidates shall be printed upon all such ballots in clear, plain, bold and legible roman capitals twelve-point (pica) type, and the printing of said names of said candidates shall also be uniform in style and appearance throughout the ballot. On the back and outside of all ballots shall be printed the words "Official Ballot For Commissioners of Vienna," the date of the election and a facsimile of the signature of the Clerk to the Commissioners of Vienna by whom the ballots have been prepared.

5. That the five Commissioners elected shall, within ten days after their election, meet and organize, by choosing one of their number to be president of the Board, and all vacancies occurring in the Board, either by death, removal from the town, resignation or refusal to act as Commissioner, shall be filled by the remaining Commissioners by electing some adult citizen of said town who possesses the required qualifications for being Commissioner, and he or she shall hold office for the unexpired term for which he or she was elected or until his or her successor is duly elected and qualified.

7. That said Commissioners shall, not more than thirty days and not less than ten days prior to an election of Commissioners, appoint three judges of election whose appointment shall be for a period of two months from the date thereof and who shall conduct the election according to the election laws of the State of Maryland; except, that the hours for
