

105C. It shall be lawful for any stenographer duly appointed and qualified as herein provided to attend and be present at the session of every Grand Jury empanelled in said County, and it shall be his duty to take in shorthand the testimony introduced before such Grand Jury, and to furnish to the Grand Jury and the State's Attorney of said County a full copy of all such testimony as such Grand Jury or State's Attorney shall require, and he shall not permit any other person to take a copy of the same, nor any portion thereof, nor to read the same, nor any portion thereof, nor shall he disclose the character of any of the contents of the same to any person or persons other than the Grand Jury, or State's Attorney for said County, except upon the written order of the Court duly made after hearing the State's Attorney; all of the said original minutes shall be kept in the custody of said State's Attorney, and neither the same nor a copy of the same shall be taken from the office of said State's Attorney, excepting for the use of the Grand Jury for said County, or for production in Court, without an order of the Court first had and obtained as above provided.

105D. Any stenographer appointed as aforesaid, who shall violate any of the provisions of the three preceding sections with regard to secrecy shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof, shall be fined not exceeding one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars, or imprisoned in jail not exceeding one year or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act is hereby declared to be an emergency law and necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety, and being passed upon a ye and nay vote supported by three-fifths of all of the members elected to each of the two Houses of the General Assembly, the same shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1929.
