

330C. Whenever any lessor shall desire to have again and repossess any premises to which he is entitled under the provisions of the preceding section, he, or his duly qualified agent or attorney, shall make his written complaint under oath or affirmation, before any Justice of the Peace of Baltimore County, and describing therein in general terms the property sought to be had again and repossessed as aforesaid, and also setting forth the name of the tenant to whom the same is rented, or his assignee or under tenant or tenants, with the amount of rent thereon due and unpaid; and praying by warrant to have again and repossess the premises, together with judgment for the amount of rent due and costs; and it shall thereupon be the duty of said Justice of the Peace forthwith to issue his summons, directed to any constable of Baltimore County, and ordering him to notify said tenant, assignee or under tenant forthwith to appear before the said Justice of the Peace, at the trial to be held on the second day after the filing of said complaint, to show cause why the prayer of said lessor should not be granted as aforesaid, and the said constable shall forthwith proceed to serve said summons upon said tenant, assignee or under tenant in said premises, or upon his or their known or authorized agent, but if for any reason, neither said tenant, assignee or under tenant, nor his or their agent can be found, then said constable shall affix an attested copy of said summons conspicuously upon said premises, and such affixing of said summons shall, for the purposes of this sub-division of this Article, be deemed and construed a sufficient service upon all persons whomsoever.

330D. If at the trial on the second day aforesaid, the Justice of the Peace shall be satisfied the interest of justice will be better served by an adjournment to enable either party to procure his necessary witnesses, he may adjourn the trial for a period not exceeding one day, except by consent of all parties, and if at said trial or due adjournment thereof as aforesaid, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the Justice of the Peace before whom said complaint has been made and tried as aforesaid, that the rent or any part of the rent for said premises is actually due and unpaid, then the said Justice of the Peace shall give judgment in favor of said lessor for the amount of rent found due, with costs of suit, and shall order that said tenant and all persons claiming or holding by or under said tenant shall yield and render up possession of said premises unto said lessor, or unto his duly qualified agent or
