

1916, to be known as Sections 316A and 316B, and to read as follows:

316A. In all cases in which any person is tried and committed before any Justice of the Peace in Baltimore County, and sentenced by him to any imprisonment, (other than imprisonment in default of payment of fines and/or to any fine of over $50 (exclusive of costs), he may within ten days after sentence, exclusive of the day of sentence, pray an appeal to the Circuit Court of Baltimore County upon waiving his right to plead on the trial of said appeal in said Circuit Court his former jeopardy resulting from his said trial and conviction before said justice, no formal waiver of said right to plead said former jeopardy shall be necessary; and a prayer for an appeal under this section to said Circuit Court shall be construed as a waiver of said right to plead said former jeopardy, and in the event of such appeal being so prayed, the said justice shall forthwith endorse on the commitment the fact of an appeal being prayed, together with a list of the names and addresses of the witnesses for the State, and forthwith transmit the papers, together with a copy of the commitment, with the names and addresses of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, to the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, and the said person shall thereafterward be tried de novo in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, in the same manner as if the said case had been originally brought before said Court without the necessity of presentment or indictment by the Grand Jury; and the said court, upon said trial de novo, may impose any sentence authorized by law to be imposed as punishment for the offense charge irrespective of the sentence imposed by the Justice of the Peace below, provided, however, that the trial in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County shall be by jury, if demanded by the party charged; provided further that upon the trial in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County of such appeals under this section, the same fees and costs shall be taxed in said cases on appeal as would obtain in like cases where a trial is had upon presentment and indictment by the Grand Jury; provided, further, that no appeal shall be prosecuted under this section after payment of the fine or after expiration of the sentence imposed by the justice. And, in case of appeal prosecuted under this section the convicted party shall be entitled to be admitted to bail for his appearance in the Circuit Court for Baltimore County, pending for his appearance in the Circuit Court for Baltimore