

ments are due, and provided further, that if any employee's regular annual salary, plus the One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180) herein provided for, would amount to more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000), then he shall receive only that portion of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180) which, when added to his regular annual salary, gives him a total annual compensation of Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000). In estimating the regular annual salary of any State employee covered by this Act, the payments made to any such employee under the provisions of Chapter 739 of the Acts of 1943 of the General Assembly of Maryland shall not be included. For the purposes of this Act, the teachers and employees in the State Teachers' Colleges, State Training Schools for Delinquent Children, as defined in Chapter 797 of the Acts of 1943, the Maryland School for the Deaf and the Rosewood State Training School shall be considered State employees and such teachers and employees shall not be included within the scope of the words "every teacher (including supervisors, principals and attendance officers) employed in the public school system of this State", as used in Chapter 3 of the Acts of the Special Session of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1944 (Senate Bill No. 3), nor shall such teachers and employees be covered by the provisions of said Chapter.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any employee covered by the provisions of this Act has not been employed for at least one year prior to July 1, 1944, he shall only receive one-twelfth of said payment of One Hundred and Eighty Dollars ($180) for each month of his employment immediately prior to July 1, 1944.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That regular employees of the State Roads Commission, who are paid on a daily or hourly basis and who have been regularly employed by the State Roads Commission for the one year immediately preceding July 1, 1944, and expressly including State Roads Commission employees engaged in work on the maintenance of county roads under the supervision of the said Commission, shall be considered State employees for the purposes of this Act. The regular employees of the Baltimore City Department of Welfare whose salaries are fixed by the State Department of Welfare and 80% of whose salaries are paid by the State shall be considered State employees for the purposes of this Act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That employees of the Unemployment Compensation Board, who receive no compensation from State funds other than that derived from
